Good morning, Mike,

I spoke with Harris about this on Friday. I'm going to loop in Mr. Ludowig's new counsel. I would prefer to use the same Text Message Protocol for all defendants, so that there is continuity.

Aaron, I've attached the most recent version of the Proposed Text Message Protocol; can you please review and let us know your thoughts?

Thanks,
Alex

I don't fully understand what the issue is here, as I believe the RFPs are pretty clear. It may be easier to jump on a call to further discuss. What is your availability early next week?

Thanks, Alex. In addition to RFP 18, can you please identify which specific RFPs relate to which Empower employees you're seeking information from?

Good morning, Gabriela,

I hope this finds you well! The most recent discovery served on Empower, also attached here, includes various RFPs seeking communications (inclusive of texts) between Mr. Abrarpour, Mr. Noorian, Empower employee, and other third-parties.

See, for example, Request for Production No. 18: Please produce all communications between Jonathan Abrarpour and any Empower employee, consultant, or advisor or any third-party relating to Matthew Ludowig's employment at Empower from July 1, 2022, to present.

As we are not privy to the internal structure of Empower (and which employee is tasked with certain jobs), we are happy to further discuss our requests, and we can work together to create of employees that would have relevant communications.

Let me know your thoughts!

Thanks,

Alex Pierce

Alex – on the text message protocol, can you please clarify which of your clients' discovery requests relate to which Empower employees you're seeking information from?

Good morning, Mike,

I hope this email finds you well! Please find attached our redlines to the Text Message Protocol. In addition to the edits, we would request that Empower withdraw its subpoena to Apple regarding Matthew Ludowig's devices, as we believe this protocol makes that subpoena extremely duplicative.

Please let me know your thoughts; we are happy to schedule a call to further discuss.

Thanks,
Alex
